

Empowering Mathematicians: Practical Strategies to Build Confidence and Motivation in Maths

Session Overview

Do you want to help your students become confident and motivated mathematicians?

Join our webinar, focused on Recommendation 5 from the EEF guidance: Develop pupils' independence and motivation.

We will share practical strategies and classroom examples, including:

- building confidence through live modelling
- effective use and gradual removal of scaffolding
- developing independence in problem solving

Book your free place:

<https://researchschool.org.uk/exchange/events-and-training>

Date and Time

Tuesday 23rd June 2026, 16:00-17:00

Audience

This session is suitable for mathematics teachers at all levels, with a particular focus on KS3 and KS4.

Facilitators

Drew Leatherday, Assistant Headteacher at Newfield School, and Danny Peaker, Director of Maths for Castleford Academies Trust.

Online Event

rs@exchangepartnership.org.uk

03451 450075 (option 3)

<https://researchschool.org.uk/exchange>

Exchange Research School at Don Valley Academy