

Tackling Disadvantage in Gloucestershire and Beyond

Ideal for primary and secondary leaders, teachers and PP leads

Discover how thoughtful adaptations in our teaching and learning can help create a sense of belonging for our disadvantage pupils

TALKS

WORKSHOPS

COLLABORATION

HOT LUNCH

Expert insight with regular discussion breaks

Inspirational workshops on topics that matter

Learn from like-minded passionate colleagues

Refuel and relax with a delicious hot lunch

Tuesday 13th October 2026

9:00 - 15:30

Leonardo Hotel Cheltenham

£75 per person

<https://shorturl.at/HbdIB>

Supported by the Education Endowment Foundation

Supported by the Education Endowment Foundation

2025 price lock!

Researchschool.org.uk /gloucestershire

Gloucestershire Research School

@GlosResearchSch

Tackling Disadvantage in Gloucestershire and Beyond

Ideal for primary and secondary leaders, teachers and PP leads

Choose from four workshop topics that matter to you

Keynote speakers dedicated to raising attainment for disadvantage pupils

Strong foundations in writing

Oracy

Using tools to support disadvantaged learners

Metacognition

Sonia Thompson

St Matthews Research School
Director and member of
The Oracy Commission

Harry Madgwick

EEF Senior Content and Engagement Manager

Laura Spence

Gloucestershire Research School
Director

Jenn Sills

Gloucestershire Research School
Deputy Director

Tuesday 13th
October 2026

9:00 - 15:30

Leonardo
Hotel
Cheltenham

£75 per person

<https://shorturl.at/HbdIB>

Supported by the Education Endowment Foundation

Supported by the Education Endowment Foundation

2025 price
lock!

[Researchschool.org.uk
/gloucestershire](https://researchschool.org.uk/gloucestershire)

Gloucestershire
Research School

@GlosResearchSch