

Greenshaw
Research School

Improving reading in the Secondary classroom programme

Course overview

This programme is designed for school leaders and teachers who want to learn more about supporting students with reading across the curriculum.

The in-person day will explore some of the barriers students face when reading in lessons, and how teachers can help them overcome these through a range of practical, evidence-informed classroom strategies.

"This course is a must for anyone who wants to increase their knowledge of teaching reading and literacy."
Assistant HoD, Secondary

Key features

- We begin by looking at the science of reading, and why good reading instruction is so essential, particularly for disadvantaged learners.
- Participants will gain an understanding of how to support students in 'reading to learn', with reading being a vital tool for building academic knowledge in all subjects.
- Attendees will receive an accompanying resource that explains and exemplifies 27 high impact strategies for supporting students before, during and after reading.

Dates

Thursday 25 February, online 3.30-5pm

Thursday 4 March, all day
(venue – Carshalton Beeches, SM5 4NP)

Monday 22 March, online, 3.30-5pm

Attendees

Secondary senior leaders and teachers across all subjects.

Costs

- £225 per person (two delegates from the same organisation £300)
- Early bird rate (booked before 11 December) £175 per person or £225 for two delegates.

Please sign up on our form
bit.ly/GRSSecReading2027

For queries contact Jo Jacobs
jjacobs@greenshaw.co.uk